EditorsBreaking

News • Latest Updates

Politics

Cockroach party said - Chief Election Commissioner should resign within 48 hours

Published: 25 Sep 2026

The Cockroach Janata Party (CJP) on Thursday gave Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar an ultimatum to resign within 48 hours. The party said that if he does not resign, movements will be carried out across the country, followed by protests in Delhi.

CJP founder Abhijeet Deepke said in a press conference in Delhi—Gyanesh Kumar is the biggest traitor of this country. Through SIR, he deleted more than 130 million votes in the country. People are being deprived of their right to vote. Deepke said—democracy means that the people choose their government. But ever since Gyanesh Kumar became Chief Election Commissioner, the government is deciding who will vote and who will not. Actually, a report by the Indian Express on Wednesday claimed that Election Commissioners Sukhbir Singh Sandhu and Vivek Joshi had objected at least 14 times over the past 10 months to commission decisions and orders regarding SIR, but no action was taken.

Tags: #cjp #gyanesh kumar