Shooting for the sequel of 3 Idiots to start from April: Aamir Khan, Kareena, Madhavan, and Sharman will return

Published: 21 Sep 2026

The shoot for the sequel to the all-time blockbuster film '3 Idiots' from 2009 could start in April 2027. Director Rajkumar Hirani is currently working on the film's script. According to a Mid-Day report, Aamir Khan will read the final script of the film in February, after which official work on the project will move forward. In this sequel, Aamir Khan is expected to reunite with Kareena Kapoor Khan, R. Madhavan, and Sharman Joshi in the main cast. The '3 Idiots' sequel is currently in the writing stage. Rajkumar Hirani and his team will complete the final draft of the script by early next year. Aamir Khan will read this screenplay in February and give his approval. Immediately after Aamir Khan's approval, the makers plan to take the film to the floor in April 2027.

The sequel plans to bring back the main cast of the 2009 original film together on screen. The film could see Aamir Khan (Rancho), R. Madhavan (Farhan), and Sharman Joshi (Raju), the popular trio, along with Kareena Kapoor Khan (Pia) reprising their roles. Released in 2009, '3 Idiots' set several historic records at the box office. Before the '3 Idiots' sequel, Aamir Khan will complete shooting for director Ashutosh Gowariker’s sports-drama film 'Lalkara.' He will be busy with the shooting schedule of 'Lalkara' from October this year to March 2027. This film is based on the historic Test series against Pakistan in 1952 and the story of the then Indian cricket team captain Lala Amarnath.
