Gwalior / Datia. Whoever does excellent work, when they step out on the streets, a crowd naturally follows them. This was proven recently by Dr. Narottam Mishra's supporters and the people of Datia. The public showed that whoever does excellent work, his name is Narottam.

The occasion was the festival of Diwali. When former Home Minister and senior BJP leader Dr. Narottam Mishra went out in the markets of Datia during Diwali, thousands of people followed him. A large number of women were also part of this. Even without any politics, election rallies, or calls for gathering, the fact that such a massive crowd followed former Home Minister Dr.

Narottam Mishra is significant. It clearly shows that the magic of Dr. Narottam Mishra's popularity is at a peak among the people of Datia, and in Datia, he has no competition.

The ease with which former minister Dr. Mishra was meeting and greeting people showed great confidence on his face, and it was clear that BJP made a big mistake by not giving him a ticket. Dr. Narottam Mishra is still a favorite among the public, and people hold him in the highest regard. In the previous election, it was only due to the previous administration head's arbitrariness and their inaction that he lost the assembly election; otherwise, no one could have defeated him in Datia.
