EditorsBreaking

News • Latest Updates

National

Traveling from Ayodhya to Nepal by train is no longer a dream, it's reality...

Published: 23 Nov 2026

Yes, the direct train service from Ayodhya to Janakpur Dham in Nepal, the Saryu-Kamla Express, has been inaugurated. Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Nepal's Prime Minister Balendra Shah gave it the green flag on November 23, 2026, and regular operations for passengers will start from November 28, 2026.

Key Information

• Train Name: Saryu-Kamala Express

• Route & Time: It will cover a distance of approximately 604 km from Ayodhya Cantt / Ayodhya Dham to Janakpur Dham in about 19 hours, and there is no need to change trains along the way.

• Operation: Regular service will run once a week in both directions (on the inaugural day, special train number 04295 ran, and regular service starts from November 28, 2026).

• Major Stops: Manikapur, Basti, Gorakhpur, Narkatiaganj, Raxaul, Sitamarhi, Jaynagar, Madhubani, etc.

• Documents: Indian travelers do not need a visa to go to Nepal, but it is necessary to carry a valid ID as per border/travel rules.

Tags: #world news #ayodhya to nepal by train #india news #international news #railway news