Abhishek is the highest scorer in T-20 during powerplay

Published: 18 Sep 2026

India defeated Afghanistan by 127 runs in the third T20. In the match played in Delhi, Indian opener Abhishek Sharma scored 108 runs. He set several records during this innings.

Abhishek became the player with the most runs in the powerplay in T20 Internationals. Along with this, he equaled Virat Kohli as one of the Indians with the most centuries in overall T20s, both having 10 centuries. Additionally, by scoring a century off 30 balls, he broke Rohit Sharma's record for the fastest century by an Indian.

In the six powerplay overs in Delhi, Abhishek scored an unbeaten 76 runs off 22 balls. This is the highest score by any batsman in the powerplay in men's T20 Internationals. Portugal's Kuldeep Gholia is second with 74 runs.
