EditorsBreaking

News • Latest Updates

Madhya Pradesh

Chief Minister Mohan Yadav sets a new record, becomes the CM with the second-longest tenure among BJP CMs

Published: 14 Nov 2026

Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav has set a new record regarding his tenure as CM. After taking oath on December 13, 2023, he completed a tenure of 1,067 days by November 14, 2026. With this, he has become the CM with the second-longest tenure among BJP chief ministers in Madhya Pradesh.

In this matter, former CM Shivraj Singh Chouhan is still ahead of him. Dr. Mohan Yadav has surpassed former CMs Uma Bharti, Babulal Gaur, and Sundarlal Patwa in terms of tenure. With this record, discussions about his time in office are happening in Madhya Pradesh politics.

Shivraj Singh Chouhan’s tenure still remains the longest among BJP chief ministers.

Tags: #mp news #cm dr mohan yadav #shivraj singh chouhan #babulal gaur