Should the Laadli Behna scheme be stopped?

Published: 14 Nov 2026

Seeing the speed at which Mohan's government is taking loans, the people of Madhya Pradesh have started to worry that in the coming times, the state's citizens might have to face heavy inflation. Anyway, inflation is not low in Madhya Pradesh. If we compare it with the neighboring state of Uttar Pradesh, from tea and samosas to buying vehicles, many things are more expensive in Madhya Pradesh. In such a situation, the question arises whether the Ladli Behna scheme should continue or if the government should look for other ways to reduce the economic burden?
